

Golden accessories, meticulously placed throughout the Devghar, add a touch of opulence and symbolism. The Devghar is a masterpiece of craftsmanship, a sanctuary of spiritual reflection, meticulously fashioned from a harmonious blend of rich, polished wood and translucent acrylic. The wood, with its warm, earthy tones, provides a sense of natural connection and grounding, while the acrylic elements offer an ethereal quality, allowing the interplay of light to create a celestial atmosphere. At its heart, a soft light emanates from behind the intricately carved wooden panels, casting a gentle radiance that bathes the entire space in an aura of divine serenity. The play of light against the acrylic surfaces imparts an almost dreamlike ambiance, making it a sacred space that transcends the boundaries of the earthly realm.

Each gilded element carries its own significance, reflecting the deep-rooted cultural and spiritual values of the space. The contrast of the golden accents against creates a mesmerizing visual spectacle, a reminder of the enduring connection between the material and the divine.

Picture a grand house entrance that exudes opulence and charm. The flooring is adorned with sleek, jet-black marble, its smooth surface gleaming in the soft, warm light that emanates from the beautifully crafted wooden ceiling. The walls are enveloped in the rich embrace of golden teak veneer, adding a touch of timeless elegance to the space. Carefully placed kaju-shaped basalt stones offer both contrast and a natural touch, their unique texture providing a visual focal point.

Indulge in the epitome of refined living as you step into this impeccably designed living room. The crowning jewel of this space is undoubtedly the TV unit, a work of art in itself. Its Italian marble top glistens with a luxurious luster, set in perfect harmony with the exquisite wood veneer. A touch of white deco paint adds a contemporary edge, creating a striking focal point that marries tradition and modernity.

MASTERPIECE MEETS SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

Designed by: Chaudhari Associates
Principal Designer: Pooja Chaudhari & Akash Chaudhari
Photograph Courtesy: Chaudhari Associates

Amidst this ensemble, the raw wood center table takes center stage, acting as a visual anchor that balances the room's elements. It introduces a touch of rustic chic, providing a unique character to the space. It's not just a table; it's a statement piece. This living room seamlessly merges luxury and comfort, inviting you to unwind, entertain, and appreciate the finer things in life. With every detail carefully curated, this is more than a room; it's an embodiment of your personal style and a haven for relaxation and enjoyment.

Your seating experience is a testament to both comfort and style. The choice of plush grey sofas, with their inviting embrace, offers a perfect contrast to the richness of the wood. The wooden accents infuse the room with a sense of natural warmth, creating an atmosphere that is both cozy and sophisticated.

A symphony of textures unfolds as wooden panels adorned with Gold PVD coated Impressions seamlessly interact with a backdrop of luxurious marble. This combination of materials and textures is a masterful stroke of design, creating an environment that exudes sophistication and opulence.

These exquisite accents not only add an air of elegance but also elevate every element in the room to a new level of luxury. The result is a tastefully designed space where every detail has been carefully considered to create a harmonious and visually stunning aesthetic.

The master bedroom is a true masterpiece of design. The bed is framed by gleaming grooves that provide a captivating accent. A sleek and minimalist side table, along with contemporary suspended light fixtures, infuses modernity with an air of grace.

A calming color palette envelops the room, turning it into a serene oasis of relaxation. The balcony door exhibits an Indo-western look with a captivating combination of veneer and fluted glass, adding a touch of uniqueness to the design.

Additionally, this masterful composition effortlessly merges sophistication with simplicity, offering a design that is both timeless and inviting.

The bedroom balcony is a haven of tranquility and aesthetics. The light-toned wall textures exude a delicate charm, infusing a rustic touch that sets the tone for relaxation. A wall adorned with artificial green grass enhances the calming and refreshing ambiance, creating a serene oasis. The seating arrangement, creatively designed in a round shape on the wall, extends a heartfelt invitation to unwind and indulge in leisure.

(Read full article on The Architect's Diary website)

5 indoor swimming pool designs

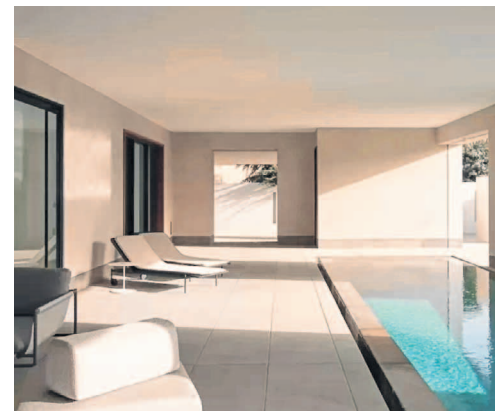

Swimming Pool Design may not be for everyone, but it is something everyone dreams of. Imagine plunging yourself into the cool blue waters after a long day. Designing a swimming pool from scratch might seem daunting, especially when you have site restrictions. But it's not! Here are five swimming pool design ideas to get you started.

STARRY SKIES
The swimming pool was placed in the basement to ensure the privacy of clients and their guests, and is also accessible through a ramp in the garden. Sliding folding louvered doors provides clients with the necessary privacy, while also giving them a view of the lush gardens.
Designed by: Dreamscape Architects

GREEK SANTORINI STYLE

Amongst all Mediterranean decor styles, the simple Greek Santorini decor style is fascinating with its white washed walls, accenting space over things and bringing in shades of blue from the sea and sky. The pool area is designed in the same manner. It serves as a recreational zone for the family to host parties or spend quality time with one another.
Designed by: Rainbow Designers & Associates

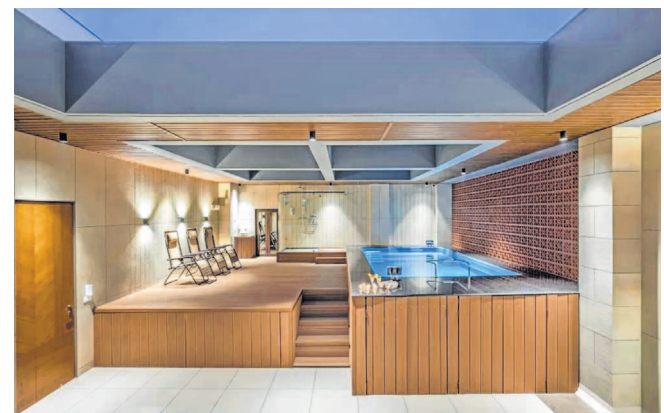

MINIMALIST SWIMMING POOL DESIGN

Providing two entrances to the home, one experiences distinct atmospheres – the calm, silent pool patio giving way through a large glass pivot door; the other a 16'-0" wide by 16'-0" deep double height entrance foyer under a 16'-0" wide by 28'-0" long skylight behind a heavy 9-foot mahogany wood double door, which immediately floods the center of the house with ever-transforming light from sunrise to sunset.
Designed by: ALEEYA. design studio

EXTRUDED BRICK WALL

Considering the existing site conditions, services comprising the staircase, kitchen, and toilets were stacked up on the west side. With the swimming pool as the central feature, the living, dining, and bedrooms are oriented overlooking the pool.

DECKED AND RAISED

The swimming pool is decked up with wooden flooring, exterior cladding, and perfectly suitable pool tile to space to enhance the beauty of the pool patio.
Designed by: Design Studio Associates

Of terracotta jaali and skylights

The four-bedroom house is divided into three zones, ensuring privacy for each of its spaces. Grey and white boxes, terracotta jaali and skylights form this residence set in a quiet village area in Perinthalmanna. The entry patio, living area and guest bedroom forms the first zone. Another bedroom, dining space and staircase forms the second zone and the third zone has the kitchen and work area. The first zone has two bedrooms on the first floor.

Yellow elements in between the greys and whites of the spaces add contrast to the rooms. Circular window and skylight, and terracotta jali wall in the common spaces add an interesting play of light and shade inside the residence. The dining space is also topped with a monochrome double-height wall which reaches the upper floor. A sleek metal staircase with cantilevered wooden treads gives access to the two bedrooms in the upper storey. Easy-to-maintain house plants like pothos and areca palm have been added in various corners to bring in good quality air and freshness to the house.

Designed by: SuEn Studio
Principal Architects: Suhail Kizhissery & Farheen Haris
Photograph Courtesy: Spirit Wall Studio

